FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Areté Legal Publishing, LLC Leads Thought Leadership with Inside Litigation Winter 2006

Pittsburgh, PA, February 1, 2006 – Arété Legal Publishing, LLC (ALP), founded in 2004 as a center for thought leadership in the legal industry, is pleased to announce publication of the Winter 2006 issue of its magazine -- Inside Litigation. Its publishers, Arthur R. Crivella and Wayne J. West have long been process improvement innovators in many industries, including professional services. “We are pleased to support the legal community with a superb forum that brings together peers to discuss the litigation process from tactical and strategic perspectives,” notes Crivella, who serves as President and CEO of ALP’s parent, Arété Legal, Inc. “Inside Litigation provides a great opportunity for outstanding leaders in law to dialogue on the challenges and complexities of litigation and legal process and the solutions companies such as ours provide.”

Inside Litigation has been well received by its audience, the top corporate counsel responsible for litigation in the major corporations and their outside counsel. The Winter 2006 issue centers in on the litigation department at Pfizer Inc and features Senior Vice President & Associate General Counsel, Litigation, Regulatory Law & Compliance, and Global Security, Allen Waxman on the cover. Lawyers and those involved in business will find articles of interest on the litigation whirlwind of multiple and parallel proceedings facing corporations today. The magazine focuses on innovative strategies for in-house counsel and is published several times per year.
